INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the summer 2017 newsletter, which is appearing a little later than anticipated. We have continued with our 2016/2017 programme which as anticipated is turning out to be very varied and also very interesting. Our thanks are due to Richard Husband, our former Programme Secretary, who has organised this for the Society, although the day to day administration is now with Rufus Barnes.

From time to time we have to make changes to our published programme on the blue cards. However, the editor tries to keep the programme details on the Society's web site always up to date; this can be found at; - www.cambridgephilatelicsociety.co.uk

If any member is on email, and has not received this newsletter by email, but would be happy to receive future newsletters and communications by email then would you please let the secretary know at; info@cambridgephilatelicsociety.co.uk ; this will help save on both postage and paper costs.

ANOTHER BLOODY RAILWAY-PART 2

We welcomed Peter Pugh for another episode about railways. His main theme was British mail by the Siberian route from the east coast of China. Besides the detailed history of the region in the early 1900's many different covers were shown, in addition to photographs of the locomotives involved, and track damage, a lot caused by war or internal revolution. Wei Hai Wei was an important place for the railway; differences in how the mail was managed were highlighted when it was subsequently returned to the Chinese in the 1930.

Friday 21st April

BORDER CHANGES IN THE BALTIC DURING WORLD WAR II

We gave a warm welcome to Rex Dixon. We were given a detailed history of the region in particular Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and also the town of Vilnius in Russia, (and also when it was part of Lithuania) and the many changes which took place in respect of treatment of the postal services. Many covers were in evidence in particular liberation type caches, fieldpost, propaganda, and registered covers as well as parcel cards. The importance of Danzig was shown and also covers showing different postal rates which varied depending upon which countries' stamps were used.

Wednesday 3rd May

BRITISH BORNEO: TRAINS, PLANES AND STAMPS

We gave a very warm welcome to Jon Higgins from King's Lynn. The evening commenced with the development of the rail network in Brunei, Sarawak and North Borneo, and in particular the Sabah Railway. Photographs of the rolling stock and locomotives were in evidence and the various covers which were taken by rail. The impact of Japanese Occupation, the subsequent change of North Borneo to a Crown Colony and the progressive change from steam locomotives to diesel were shown.

The first airport appeared in 1939 when Imperial Airways commenced services in the region. Flown covers are quite scarce; various photographs were displayed and also a flight cover.

The classic stamps of Labuan were shown with the 1879 De La Rue issue. Various proofs, specimens and cancelled sets were shown, some of which were unique. Examples of the first killer cancellations were displayed, a rare 8c sheet of stamps, colour trials, high value stamps and also manuscript overprints.

Friday 19th May

MEMBERS' EVENING; 1951-2000

Mike Bavin started the evening with various covers including one from Guildford, one from Greece, a 1987 Lichtenstein cover and a 1984 cover from Kula Lumpur. Ray Revell showed various stamps from Sierra Leone including the Royal Yacht visit, Independence issue, the first freeform stamps and the decimal currency provisionals. Rufus Barnes displayed a mixture of items on the theme of postage dues and markings re postage due, including 5d postage due mark on 1976 Belgium cover, 18p due but not collected on French cover, and also various covers clearly indicating that underpaid postage due was not collected. Keith Weston put up various stamps from French Polynesia which covered reproduction paintings, ancient Polynesian art and the discovery by the French. Richard Husband displayed various items in connection with the GB 1964 Shakespeare Festival issue, including printing varieties and colour shades.

In the second half John Towler showed items from Fiji including the first franked air letters, and various aerogrammes, ending with the 1979 redesigned portraits of the queen. Peter Morton followed with the first regional machins produced by Harrisons for Isle of Man, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales which included many phosphor band varieties and missing phosphor. Simon Kelly then displayed the 1964 QE II definitives from the Bahamas which included covers, differences in printing positions and single stamps and blocks.

Wednesday 7th June

MAINLY BLACK

Our thanks are due to our member Mike Brindle for a most interesting evening. He commenced by asking what is "black" as different parties have different ideas. He highlighted differences in colour definition between two leading catalogue specialists covering the same stamps. Early stamp printings were shown with black on a light background, such as cream or white and then black on a coloured background, generally red or yellow. The development of black on postage stamps was shown with black being used for masonry, mourning issues, coal mining subjects, and also undesirable subjects. Black was also used very often for postage due stamps and for proofs. With many commonwealth stamps black was used as a key type. Examples of overprints both in black and red were shown.

In the second half stamps from specific countries were shown which demonstrated the progression of how black was used for stamp production. Many countries such as USA, France and Czechoslovakia used black on the early issues, and indeed GB with the 1d black. The trend to use black on higher values was demonstrated such as £1 PUC GB issue. Many examples of black used on GB issues were displayed and how printing methods developed.

MID ANGLIA PHILATELIC FEDERATION

Full details of events, contacts and recent newsletters appear on the federation website; www.mapf.co.uk

I felt quite sure that this year Cambridge P S would face very stiff competition from King's Lynn P S. Indeed this has proved to be the case. Cambridge came second with 249 points and King's Lynn won the Millenium Trophy with 260 points. Can I comment that two or three years ago a score of 230 points would have won the inter society competition. Indeed Cambridge last year scored 236 points to come first which at that time was the highest mark ever achieved.
